

IS DOING NOTHING

CONTRACTOR ARMSTRONG IS DELAYING PASEO WORK.

PARK BOARD WILL PROD HIM

MR. KESSLER WILL CALL BOARD'S ATTENTION TO THE MATTER.

City Engineer Declares That at Present Rate the Paseo Will Not Be Completed This Year, as Had Been Confidently Expected.

When the board of park commissioners meets next Wednesday the park engineer, George Kessler, will bring to the attention of that body the fact that a contractor is apparently without reason, holding up the work on the Paseo and by so doing may make it impossible to finish that park this year.

The firm in question is the Adam Armstrong Contracting Company and has the contract for paving both the Paseo roadways with macadam. The contract was let September 7, 1898, and since then Mr. Armstrong has had two extensions of time, the last extension expiring June 1, 1899. Mr. Kessler, who has charge of all the work in the parks, supposed that as soon as the weather would permit Armstrong would do his best to complete his contract, but with nearly a month of good weather he has done little or nothing. Yesterday morning Mr. Kessler visited the Paseo and made a note of just what had been done. He found that a portion of the foundation stone, put in last fall, had been rolled, south of Fifteenth street, and on both roadways, from Ninth to Twelfth street, the foundation courses had been placed and partly rolled. On the west roadway the street had been excavated to sub-grade but no rock placed on it.

Armstrong's contract contains the usual penalty clause by which he is to forfeit $10 a day for each day his work remains incomplete after the expiration of the time fixed in the contract.

The board has been very desirous of pushing the work on the Paseo so as to open it to the public this summer. In all other directions the work is progressing rapidly and nothing remains in the way except the delay in finishing the paving of the roadways.

Armstrong has once before had trouble with the board for failure to carry out his contract. When he was awarded a contract to pave a part of Benton boulevard he failed to accept it in time required, and the board promptly confiscated the $20 in cash he had deposited as a guarantee of good faith. Later he made a good excuse for the failure and the money was returned to him.

Will Let Many Contracts To-day.

The largest number of grant-of-land contracts ever let by the city will be awarded to-day. The board of public works is expected to award the following contracts:

Contracts will also be let for laying natural stone sidewalks on the east side of Holmes street, Twenty-fourth to Twenty-fifth, and both sides of Bates, from Independence to Roberts, and for laying brick walks on the west side of Asbury, Independence to St. John, and on the east side of Twenty-seventh, from Locust to Holmes; east side Vine, Twenty-first to Twenty-second, and the east side of Fifteenth, Walnut street to alley west. But one paving contract will be let, Joy street, Hickory to Liberty.

LOG ROLLERS TO BE HERE.

Arrangements for the meeting of the Southwestern Association Here Next Month.

Dr. S. C. A. Rubey, of Clinton, Mo., president of the Southwestern Missouri Log Rolling Association, and H. E. Erret, of Nevada, Mo., who has received the endorsement of the state association as its candidate for head banker of the Missouri Woodmen, were in the city yesterday. As officers of the log rolling association they held a consultation with the local committee to formulate a plan of co-operation of the log rolling association with the National Woodmen Association meeting, both of which meet here during the same week.

Arrangements were completed whereby the log rolling association will participate in the Woodmen's grand parade on June 8, the log-rollers being assigned to a prominent place in the line.

DR. ALLEN HONORED.

Though He Practices in Missouri He Was Elected President of Kansas Dental Association.

Dr. Charles C. Allen returned yesterday from Topeka, where he attended the annual meeting of the Kansas Dental Association and was elected president for the ensuing year. It is the first time in history where a resident of one state was made president of an association in another, but it is all logical enough as Dr. Allen recently moved to Kansas City from Kansas, and remains closely identified with the association and being here can reach all points in Kansas quicker than if he lived at any point in Kansas; this due largely to improved mail facilities.

HENRY N. GARLAND, Western Passenger Agent, Kansas City, Mo.

Candidate for Beer Inspector.

B. Franklin Lissauer, editor of the Wine, Beer and Liquor Dealers' Journal, has come out as a candidate for pure beer commissioner. Mr. Lissauer's contention is that, being the only editor of a beer paper in the state, and having full knowledge of the beer business, he is the man selected for the place. He has the backing of the brewers and many politicians.

A warrant was issued by the clerk of the police court yesterday for the arrest of Capt. Brock, who manufactures printers' machinery at Thirtieth and Main, charging them with maintaining a nuisance. Twenty-two women complained to City Attorney Brown that the noise and smoke and escaping steam are injurious to health and damaging to property.

WOMAN ADMITS TO SWEARING.

Mrs. Klutke Tells a Jury in Judge Gates' Court of Her Occasional Profanity.

Louisa Klutke, an eccentric little German woman, admitted on the witness stand in Judge Gates' court yesterday that she occasionally swore a little. It was only by hard work and force of cross-examination that Judge R. H. Field drew the reluctant admission from her.

"I never use such words," said Mrs. Klutke, in very broken English, in reply to a very pointed question. "You never use such words?" said Judge Field, sternly. "Didn't you tell this man to go to the dickens?"

"Oh, Judge, I never use such talk as that—not that man, anyway."

"But you do swear, don't you?"

"Answer my question. Don't you sometimes swear?"

"Well, sometimes—but I didn't to this man."

"That's all; that's all," said Judge Field as he smiled at the juror who smiled back and the judge smiled also.

Mrs. Klutke is suing her landlord, Samuel Montgomery, for $5.00 damages because she fell on the front steps of the house at 1310 K street. He had pretended to repair the steps just a few days before, she claims, and left them in an unsafe condition.

FATHER DOES NOT INTERFERE.

Mrs. Julia Glass, Daughter of L. W. Marsh, Secures a Divorce, Despite His Threat.

A divorce was granted to Mrs. Julia Glass from Fred O. Glass in Judge Gibson's court yesterday. L. W. Marsh, father of Mrs. Glass, had threatened to interfere with his daughter's procuring a divorce. He said he thought she wanted a divorce so she could marry another man, a new key, when the case was called for trial. It was continued by Mrs. Glass' attorneys because Mr. Marsh was there to interfere.

Mr. Marsh told Judge Gibson yesterday that he had found he was mistaken about his daughter, and was willing for her to get a divorce. He had found that Glass had been cruel and abusive to her.

Minor Offenders Sentenced.

Judge Hook, of Kansas, was on the bench of the federal court yesterday. In the absence of Judge Phillips, a number of minor cases were tried, all the offenders, indicted the following week, were sentenced to six months in the Johnson county jail for passing liquor licenses.

Jack Shepherd and Henry Dysard, of Kansas City, were fined $10 each for selling liquor without license.

Clarence Griffith was sentenced to six months in the Bates county jail.

G. L. Newcomb was fined $10 and given ten days in jail for selling liquor to Indians.

County Court Doings.

The county court passed an order yesterday authorizing the county accountant to investigate at once the books of George A. McKinney, treasurer for the Eighth district. The court claims that McKinney has misappropriated the fees collected in his office for over a year, as required by law. The county court approved of the bona fide report of the auditor for the macadamizing of the Independence and Lee's Summit roads. The county clerk was authorized to advise for bids to furnish coal to the Independence court house.

Keeran Suits Dismissed.

The damage suit of Edward O. F. Keeran against James E. P. Keeran, his brother, for $10.00 for alienation of his wife's affections has been dismissed. Mrs. Nora Keeran's suit for divorce against Edward Keeran has also been dismissed. Edward Keeran's attorneys think he has left the state.

The Keerans are farmers. At the time their family troubles began they lived near Independence.

Court Briefs.

One warranty deed and one quitclaim, each for $100.00 were filed with the recorder yesterday. The warranty was from William M. Hammond to K. L. Barton and the quitclaim from E. F. Kelley to the Southwestern Loan and Land Company.

The Manual Training people will occupy the north bleachers and the north half of the grand stand; the Central the south bleachers and the south half of the grand stand.

Father T. F. Lillis said yesterday that the class that will be graduated from St. Patrick's academy on June 7 will be the largest that has ever graduated from the institution. The following are the graduates: Rosie Morgan, Sadie Rooney, Maggie Lillis, Fannie Schuler, Susie Corrigan, Joseph Kelley.

Keith's Closing Out Removal Sale.

Two hundred thousand dollars' worth of New Furniture, Carpets and Curtains to be sold off for cash at A PRICE. We are sacrificing profits rather than move the stock. Every piece of furniture, every roll of carpet, every pair of curtains absolutely new. Sales increasing daily. Thousands of people, after looking at time prices in department stores and installment houses, are buying these beautiful new goods for cash here at 1221 and 1223 Main street.

We advise everybody to look at Furniture, Carpets and Curtains in these wide-open-method houses before buying of us; then should you fail to find in our store prettier styles, better values, much lower prices for cash, go back to the department store or installment house, who will sell you on almost unlimited time, and will allow you to return or exchange mattresses, rugs or furniture after being used. You must know that these methods cost money, and that consequently somebody pays for the bad debts incurred by others. Somebody pays for the delivery, return and repolishing of furniture, and then, too, that somebody has to buy the goods that other people have used and returned.

Do not decide to buy of us in haste. If you buy of us we will sell you at a low price, we will ask you to pay cash, we will not allow exchanges or return of goods.

We have one price only. The poorest child in Kansas City can buy of us just as low as the shrewdest or richest man or woman in the country. Everybody is on an equal footing in our store.

If what we say appeals to your judgment then come to this busy block on Main street between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets and see us for Iron Beds, Brass Beds, Dressing Tables, Dressing Cases, Chiffoniers, Wardrobes, Chamber Suits, Bookcases, Desks, Library Tables, Sideboards, China Cabinets, Dining Tables, Dining Chairs, Rockers, Easy Chairs, Leather Couches, Davenports, Parlor Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, Mattings, Linoleums, Oilcloths, Rope Portieres, Tapestry Portieres, Lace Curtains, Couch Covers, Upholstery Goods, Drapery Fabrics, Fretwork, Window Shades, etc.
